

High speed train called /Ferrari on tracks/ has glided into service

Italy's brand new high speed train /Italo/ has glided into service described as a "Ferrari on tracks." The trains will run between Naples, Rome, Florence, Bologna and Milan. It is Italy's first privately owned high-speed train set up by Ferrari chairman Luca Cordero di Montezemolo.

Article link:

<https://www.tourism-review.com/high-speed-train-called-ferrari-on-tracks-has-glided-into-service-news10219>